Workshops and Individual Career Coaching now at the SYJCC

Career>Connect Long Island offers an array of career services, regardless of where you may be on your employment journey. Whether you are unemployed, underemployed, or looking to transition into a new career, we are committed to helping you assess your interests and abilities, identify your goals and develop a career plan.

Upcoming Workshops:

Ready, Set, Get a Job: Adapting to the Changing Job Market

Tuesday, November 13, 10:00-11:30 am; No Fee

Do you know what it takes to conduct an effective job search in today's job market? In this workshop we will go over the latest strategies to help you find a job in the 21st century. Learn the tips and tools you need to show perspective employers you are keeping up with the times and the competition. So dust off that resume and join us!

Applying to Jobs Online: How to Beat the System

Tuesday, December 11, 10:00-11:30 am; No Fee

Did you know that your résumé could be scanned and screened out by an Applicant Tracking System (ATS) before it even gets to a recruiter or hiring manager? Learn how to outsmart the system to increase your odds of getting an interview.

Individual Career Coaching: Ask Any Job Search Related Questions!

Wednesday, November 28, 10:00 am-1:00 pm; No Fee.

Career>Connect Long Island will be providing one-on-one, personalized assistance to job seekers. Work with a Career Services Specialist to enhance and develop the tools and skills needed to be successful in your job search. No question is a silly question. Let's talk about resumes, interviews, outreach, LinkedIn, networking, career transition, etc.! Appointments preferred; walk-ins accepted.

Online workshop registration at www.syjcc.org. For more information, to register for individual coaching sessions, and other assistance, contact Rabbi Sheila Goloboy, LMSW at 631-462-9800 x 151 or sgoloboy@syjcc.org.

The Suffolk Y JCC is a satellite location for Career>Connect Long Island, a UJA-Federation program administered by the Sid Jacobson JCC. In addition, SYJCC receives a grant from the Suffolk County Department of Labor for ongoing outreach to the unemployed in our local communities.
