SUPPORTED DECISION-MAKING

“SDMNY aims to promote supported decision-making as an alternative to guardianship for persons with intellectual and/or developmental disabilities (I/DD) in the state of New York. Supported Decision-Making was created as a means because ALL people have a right to make their own decisions with support from trusted persons of their choice.”

YOU ARE INVITED TO ATTEND ONE OF THE FOLLOWING SESSIONS:

April 18, 2019 12:00pm – 1:30pm Lunch & Learn Chik Chak café available on site

April 18, 2019 7:00pm – 8:30pm

Both sessions will be held in the Hall of Fame with a suggested donation of $5

Open to individuals with I/DD, family members and providers!
